Halloween at the Zoo 2022

The "Halloween at the Zoo 2022" event will take place on Friday, 28 October 2022, between 18:00 and 23:00 at the Budapest Zoo and Botanical Garden. The Zoo aims to continue the event even in case of heavy rain, showers, and doubtful weather conditions while respecting the safety of the visitors and keeping most of the programs running.

Some of the events of Halloween at the Zoo 2022 are outdoor events, so visitors are advised to dress according to the weather. If necessary, bring warm and waterproof clothing.

In the event of adverse and extremely dangerous weather conditions (in the case of an emergency alert issued by the OMSZ), the Zoo will announce the cancellation of the event no later than 16:00 on the day of the event on the website <https://www.zoobudapest.com> or the official Facebook page of the Zoo <https://www.facebook.com/allatkert>. If no announcement is made, the Zoo will proceed with the event.

The Zoo reserves the right, however, to cancel the event on-site or to interrupt the event once it has begun in the case of unexpected adverse weather conditions after 16.00 hours which may endanger visitors.

In the event of an unexpected, exceptional weather event that occurs before or at the start of the program, which poses a threat to life and property and which is unforeseeable and which makes it impossible to hold the program, the Zoo will consider this to be a force Majeure event and will not refund the price of the entrance ticket.

In this case, however, the Zoo offers the possibility, as a fair gesture, to apply the purchase value of the tickets purchased for the program once after the 1st of November 2022, but no later than the 31st of December 2022, as a credit towards the purchase of a ticket for a normal visit to the Zoo or even a season-ticket.

Please be sure to keep your ticket until the end of the event, as this will enable you to take advantage of the offer described above. Only tickets not used due to force majeure events may be redeemed as described above. In other cases, tickets purchased are non-refundable and cannot be used for other occasions.

Please purchase your ticket with full knowledge of the above text. Thank you for your understanding!

The Budapest Botanical Garden wishes you a pleasant stay!
